

Statement 3

If a team that was in control of the ball is awarded an alternating possession throw-in, that team shall have only whatever time was remaining on the twenty-four (24) second clock at the time the jump ball situation occurred.

Example 1:

Team A is in control of the ball with ten (10) seconds remaining on the twenty-four (24) second clock when a held ball occurs. An alternating possession throw-in is awarded to:

- (a) Team A.
- (b) Team B.

Interpretation:

- (a) Team A shall have only ten (10) seconds remaining on the twenty-four (24) second clock.
- (b) Team B shall have a new twenty-four (24) second period.

Example 2:

Team A is in control of the ball with ten (10) seconds remaining on the twenty-four (24) second clock when the ball goes out-of-bounds. The officials cannot agree on whether it was A4 or B4 who was the last to touch the ball before it went out-of-bounds. A jump ball situation is called and the alternating possession throw-in is awarded to:

- (a) Team A.
- (b) Team B.

Interpretation:

- (a) Team A shall have only ten (10) seconds remaining on the twenty-four (24) second clock.
- (b) Team B shall have a new twenty-four (24) second period.

Statement 4

If the game is stopped by an official for a foul or violation (not for the ball having gone out-of-bounds) committed by the team not in control of the ball and the possession of the ball is awarded to the same team that previously had control of the ball in the frontcourt, the twenty-four (24) second clock is reset as follows:

- If fourteen (14) seconds or more are displayed on the twenty-four (24) second clock at the time the game was stopped, the twenty-four (24) second clock shall not be reset, but shall continue from the time it was stopped.
- If thirteen (13) seconds or less are displayed on the twenty-four (24) second clock at the time the game was stopped, the twenty-four (24) second clock shall be reset to fourteen (14) seconds.

Example 1:

B4 causes an out-of-bounds violation in the frontcourt of team A. The twenty-four (24) second clock shows eight (8) seconds.

Interpretation:

Team A shall have only eight (8) seconds remaining on the twenty-four (24) second clock.

Example 2:

A4 dribbles the ball in his frontcourt and is fouled by B4. This is the second foul against team B in this period. The twenty-four (24) second clock shows three (3) seconds.

Interpretation:

Team A shall have fourteen (14) seconds remaining on the twenty-four (24) second clock.
